Meketa Investment Group Expands London Office

LONDON, March 17, 2015 - Meketa Investment Group, an investment consulting and advisory firm, is pleased to announce the expansion of its London office with the relocation of Senior Vice President Timothy Atkinson to London.

Atkinson, who joined Meketa in 2008, was previously based in the firm's Boston office where he was responsible for investment manager research and client servicing. He joins the London office to perform manager due diligence across Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA), specialising in credit and other debt strategies.

Meketa opened its London office in June 2014 to provide research support to its U.S. offices on public market, private market and risk management strategies across EMEA. London is Meketa's first office outside the United States.

"We are pleased to welcome Tim to the London team," said Stephen McCourt, Managing Principal, Meketa Investment Group. "We are committed to providing our clients with creative, research-led investment solutions and Tim's appointment helps us continue to deliver on that effort. His experience and expertise in public markets research brings a new capability to the office, enhancing our coverage of the region and supporting our growing presence here in the UK."

An independent, employee-owned firm, Meketa Investment Group provides general investment consulting and advisory services as well as specialised private markets consulting and advisory services to institutional investors including public, corporate and union employee benefit plans, university endowments, charitable organisations, insurance companies, and family offices on a discretionary and non-discretionary basis.

Meketa Investment Group can be contacted in London at +44 (0)20 3709 8485, 84 Brook Street, London, UK W1K 5EH, and/or smccourt@meketainvestments.co.uk.
