MEKETA INVESTMENT GROUP
ANNOUNCES LARROY BRANTLEY AS NEW HIRE

BOSTON, June 20, 2017 - Meketa Investment Group, a global investment consulting firm, is pleased to announce that LaRoy Brantley recently joined the firm as Principal and Consultant. Mr. Brantley is based in Meketa's Boston office.

"With years of providing high caliber investment counsel to a variety of clients in several asset classes, LaRoy is a great addition to our team here at Meketa," said Peter Woolley, Co-CEO and Managing Principal, Meketa Investment Group. "We are fortunate to have LaRoy on board and look forward to benefiting from his years of industry experience."

"Meketa is a firm I have always held in high regard, and I am excited to now be part of an organization with such deep experience serving institutional plan sponsors," stated Mr. Brantley.

LaRoy Brantley Biography

LaRoy Brantley has over 20 years of experience in the investment industry, serving in both portfolio advisor and consultant roles. Prior to joining Meketa, Mr. Brantley served as Managing Director at Cambridge Associates, where he provided investment guidance to endowments, foundations, pension funds and high net worth families, with oversight of over $5 billion in assets. Prior to that, he was an investment banker at Adams, Harkness, & Hill. He also spent seven years as a Classics instructor at the Roxbury Latin School.

Mr. Brantley graduated from Amherst College and received an MBA from Sloan School of Management at MIT.
